Declaration:

1. I have been informed of the terms of section 55 subsection 2 (1) of the Residence Act:

Section 55 subsection 2 (1) of the Residence Act states that a foreigner may be forced to leave Germany if he or she has made false statements during the visa application procedure for the purpose of obtaining a residence permit.

The applicant is obliged to make all statements to the best of his or her knowledge. Knowingly making false statements may result in the expulsion of the applicant from Germany and/or in the requested visa being refused.

By my signature, I confirm that I have been informed of the legal consequences of making false or incorrect statements during the visa application procedure.

2. I have been informed of the following:

Pursuant to section 82 subsection 1 of the Residence Act, I am obliged to put forward, and if necessary to furnish proof of, all circumstances that support my application. Should there be any reason to suspect that the marriage was not entered into for the actual purpose of cohabiting as husband and wife, but rather merely with the objective of helping a foreigner obtain a residence permit, then such doubts, if they cannot be dispelled, will result in the applicant being refused a visa.

Pursuant to section 86 of the Residence Act, authorities involved in processing my visa application may obtain personal data for the performance of their duties.
